

A FEW WORDS OF INTRO...

The Economist & Sun has changed the format of their newspaper starting with this edition. What that means to us is that our Advertisement will be in new sections in the region. To those of you who know us and know our ad, the only changes will be in the shape of our ad, not the content or position in the publication. To our new readers, I wish to welcome you to our store. We're not big, we don't offer everything that you'll need, we make lots and lots of what we sell, we're quality-minded and we're pretty friendly and we do service really well. If you like what you see, come pay us a visit. If you are a food-lover, this is it. You can also visit our website at www.thevillagegrocer.com and take a tour. Hope to see you, Cathy and Evan MacDonald and the whole group of us!

MARINATED LAMB LEGS

These are boneless and largely de-fatted legs of FRESH Ontario Lamb which we then season with a Rosemary-Balsamic marinade that is absolutely delicious. We score them a bit so that the meat takes up the seasoning a bit more thoroughly. These can be re-tied into a roast if you wish, or can be grilled on your 'Q' and then sliced at the dinner table.

WHAT'S HAPPENIN' OUTSIDE

Although it has been darn cold of late, a bit of warmth is on the way. What we have are the whole variety of spring pots of daffodils, tulips, croci and pretty well anything else that grows from a bulb. We'll also have some pans of mixed bulbs all done up in a nice planter; these available in a range of sizes and colours. There are a good choice of cute little potted stem orchids, as well as a pretty full variety of cut tulips, with the accent on pretty, AND, the first lot of outdoor garden baskets and the like arrives this weekend. It won't be long.....

WHAT'S FOR DINNER

in-law Doreen," Lovely big chunks of chicken breast in a smooth, velvety, white cream sauce with mushrooms. The chicken breasts are poached in white wine." Pretty good dinner, I'm thinking. Serves 3-4
Regular price $18.95 each

~FARMER'S~ SAUSAGES

These are a milder and fairly finely-ground pork sausage. Tastewise, they are between one of our English Breakfast and a Bratwurst, so there is some spice to them, but more laid back. These are great grilled (maybe on the weekend, but not to-day) and slipped into a bun, or oven roasted and served with egg-noodles or mashed potatoes and a dollop of gravy.

PINTADO!

This is the perfect fish in my opinion....it has no scales and no bones....how good is that! ...and not only this, it's got a fabulous colour scheme to boot. It has a firmer texture, a bit flakey and would lend itself well to grilling. We'll have a couple recipes available to help you out with it. Product of Brazil, also known as Tigerfish.

This week our frozen entree feature will be our Chicken Supreme. It is, according to my mother-

CANTALOUPES!

We've got some big mother cantaloupes happening this week in the fruit area. These are size '6', which means that they are so big that only 6 fit into a standard cantaloupe box, where usually 9, or 12, or 15, even 23 would fit. The only thing big here is the size and the flavour. At $1.99 each, the price, she is very small. From Costa Rica

CITRUS PASTA SALAD

This is a delicious light salad that's easy to take. We use small pasta shells, lots of fresh baby spinach, some of my fave pitted olives and some lemon zest in a beauty vinaigrette. This is great served at room temperature, and in my opinion, it is improved with a sprinkle of sea salt.

WHAT'S COOKIN' AT THE DELI .....

We'll be busy in the back as usual.....and this week we'll be making a CHICKEN TAJIN STEW. It's made with both white and dark meat, vegetables, prunes and chickpeas in a tomato-based sauce. What you'll need with this is a serving of rice on the side. A medium container of this really tasty dish will be $5.99 this week.

Also, you may have noticed that we've arranged a 'meal-plan' for Monday to Friday evenings. There will be a complete meal available in two different price levels; one at $9.99 complete, and the other at $7.99 complete. It's a modern and updated....and upsized version of a T.V. Dinner of the past, but better!

O-SOUP-ONION

I think that our Onion Soup is one of the best things that we make. We start with what seems like mountains of Spanish Onions, and then cook them down in a combo of beef and chicken stock, along with some Guinness and Port, Rosemary and Basil, to name of a few characters in the cast.

WHAT'S BAKING -THIS WEEK-

In our little bakery this week, we've got cherries happenin'.....lots of them. We'll be making.....
CHOCOLATE CHERRY LOAF.....this is a double-chocolate loaf with lots of sour cherries baked in. Double chocolate in this case means that there are chunks of chocolate baked into the loaf as well.....there can never be too much!

Reg.....$5.99 each
CHERRY PIES....We use sour cherries to make these as well. They are the deep-dish variety with a lattice top; available in either the oval $7.95 or the monster $17.95 size

BLACK FOREST CAKE.....These are made with 3 layers of our chocolate cake, our own cooked cherries, fresh whipped cream with lots of chocolate shavings....and chocolate drizzle, just to be sure! Two sizes:.....$15.95 and $24.95 each

CHERRY-PECAN SQUARES.....We begin with a shortbread lower crust, fill it with glazed cherries, pecans and coconut, and then iced with Doreen's famous pink icing!

Reg.....$2.99 each
CHERRY SCONES.....this is our usual flaky scone dough which is studded with sour cherries and white-chocolate chunks and then drizzled with warm white-chocolate.

Reg.....$1.69 each

All these items, and maybe more will be featured at...
