New child care centre home away from home

Aida Bisharat knows kids. Her Share and Care Child Care Centre is a home away from home for Stouffville children, she says.

Located on Albert Street, the centre caters to children between the ages of 18 months and six years.

What's unique about the centre? It introduces jolly phonics at a young age, offers nutritious snacks and lunch and is open 15 minutes earlier than most other centres.

"We have a loving, caring and nurturing staff in a friendly family oriented atmosphere," said Mrs. Bisharat, who has been in the business for more than 10 years.

A student volunteer is on-site every other Friday to provide children with a fun inclusive music session. During this time the children join together in song and dance.

Mrs. Bisharat has a diploma and certificate in early childhood education.

She prides herself on working closely with parents to find support and effective strategies to improve their children's skills, while building close relationships with families.

The centre is open Monday to Friday from 6:45 a.m. to 6 p.m.
