

Theatre's gala tickets on sale, performers announced

Tickets for the Lebovic Centre for Arts and Entertainment - Nineteen on the Park's opening celebration are now available.

The premiere gala on Saturday, May 9, gets under way with a reception at 6:30 p.m.

A variety show by comedian Glen Foster and performances by Afro-Cuban musicians and dancers Rumba Iyabo, saxophonist Rob Christian and pianist Robert Scott, as well as Music Mania, Bach to Blues and York Durham Academy of Performing Arts starts at 8 p.m. Tickets are $100 each.

MUSICAL, DANCERS

Our favourite Dr. Seuss characters will be brought to life on Tuesday, May 12, and Wednesday, May 13, by the York Durham Academy of Performing Arts.

The show starts at 8 p.m. and tickets are $10 each.

The celebration finale takes place on Saturday, May 23, with Motus O's Carmina Burana.

The performance starts at 8 p.m. and costs $25.

Tickets for these three events are now available by calling 905-640-1910 ext. 297 or by visiting the town's leisure services department.

Within the coming weeks, tickets will also be available at www.townofws.com/nineteen.

Performers are already lined up for the 2009-2010 season at the Lebovic Centre for Arts and Entertainment - Nineteen on the Park.

The season will be comprised of several mini series made up of three events each relating to the disciplines of popular music, classic music, theatre and live comedy.

ARROGANT WORMS

Some of the performers already booked include: The Arrogant Worms, Patricia O'Callaghan, Julie Crochetiere, The Essentials, Good Lovelies, TorQ Percussion Quartet, Sharon Wei and Angela Park, Motus O and Simon and Garfunkel tribute artist Bookends.

Theatre performances include You Fancy Yourself and Antoine Feval. Musical theatre diva and comedienne Sharron Matthews will be entertaining audiences with a cabaret performance.

Nineteen on the Park has also been approved as a film circuit location for the Toronto International Film Festival, which takes place from Jan. 29 to Feb. 14, 2010.
