Stouffville sorority helps at home, abroad

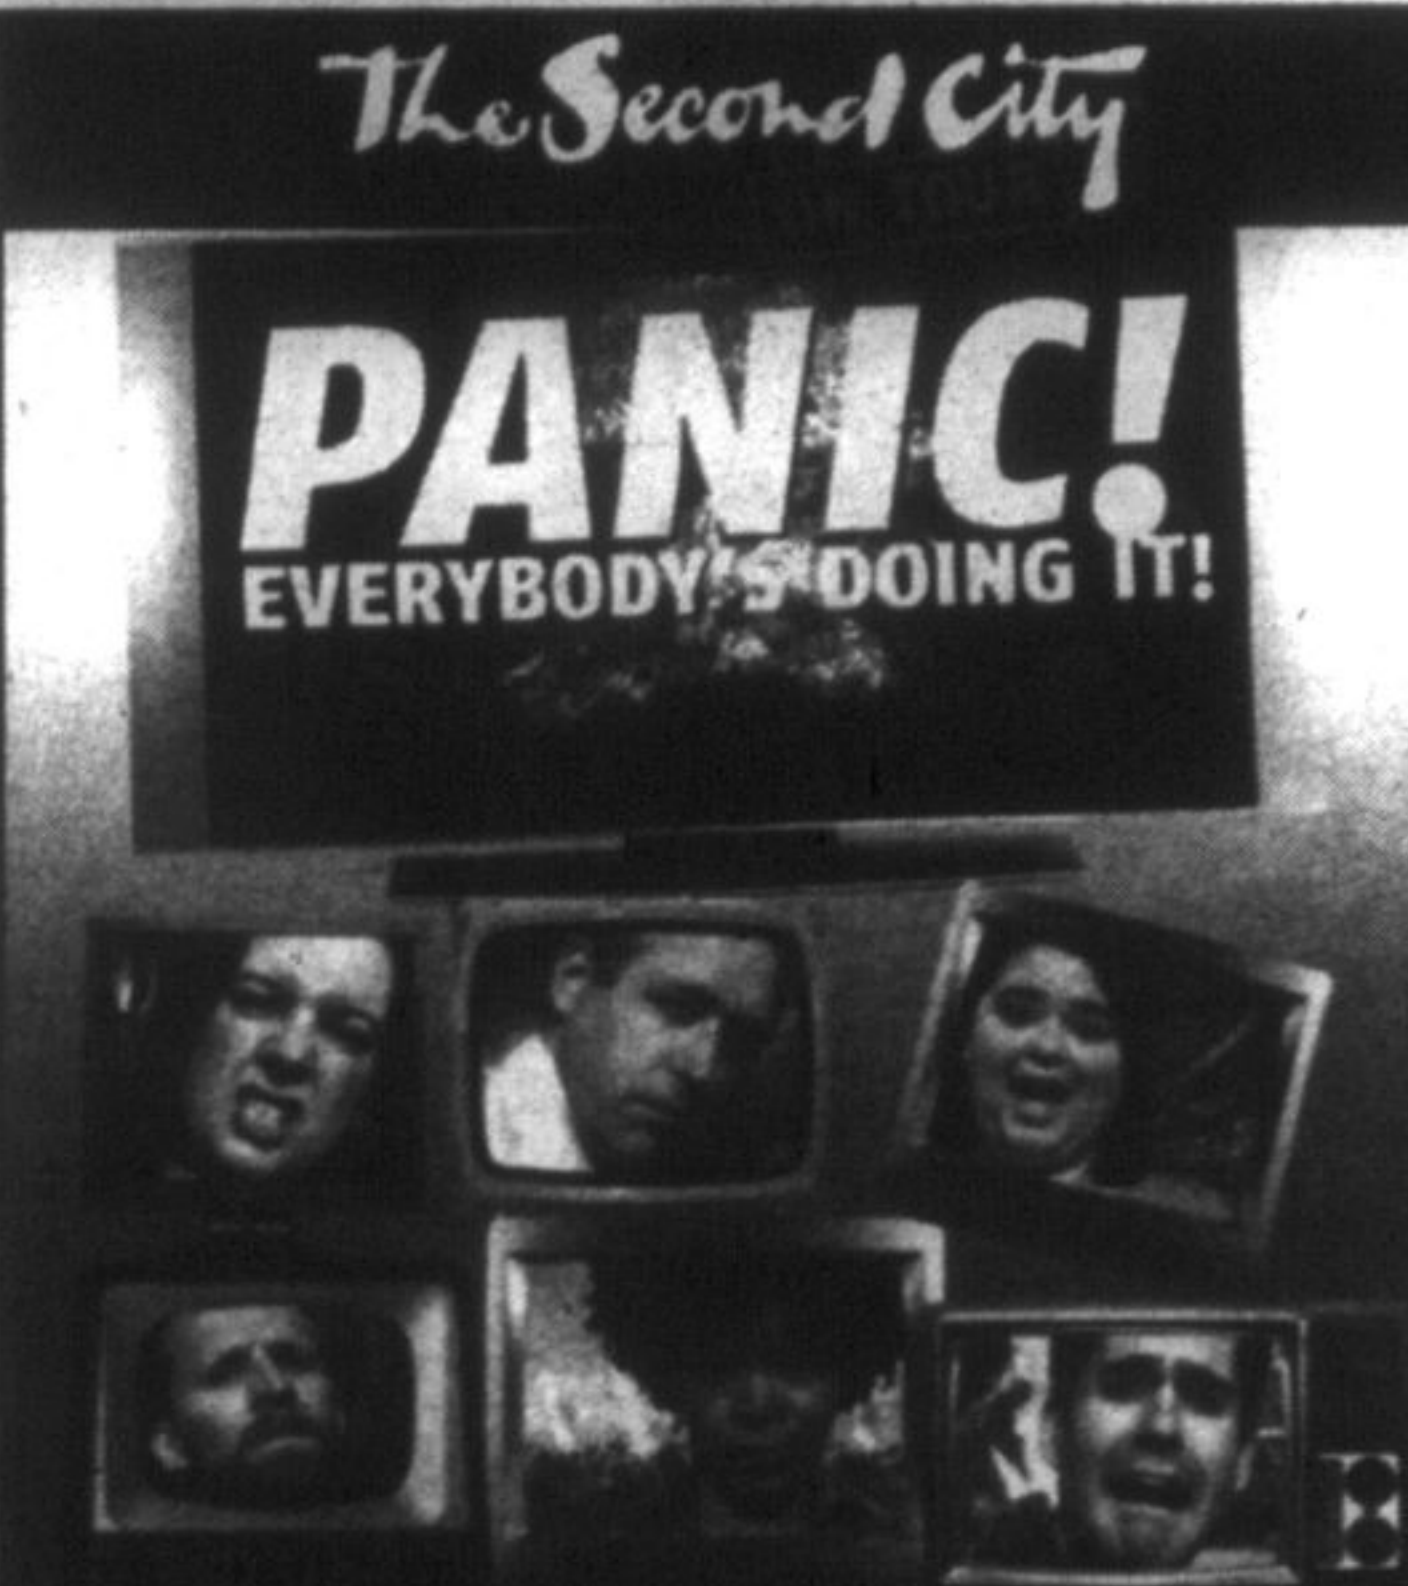

A new executive has been elected to the Stouffville chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Ontario Laureate Delta Upsilon sorority for 2009-2010.

Locally, Beta Sigma Phi donates to Parkview Home, the Salvation Army, Markham Stouffville Hospital, Women's Breast Cancer for York and Evergreen Hospice.

Internationally, it helps when disasters strike communities across North America.

The new president is Carol Baston, vice-president Linell Curr, treasurer Elaine Palmer, recording secretary MaryAnne Watson, corresponding secretary Nancy Auciello and co-ordinating council representative Angela Cumbers.

For more information on the chapter, call 905-294-5755.

Fast-paced sketch comedy featuring multiple Canadian Comedy Award-winning actors performing the best scenes and songs from The Second City's history, as well as original satire ripped from today's headlines.

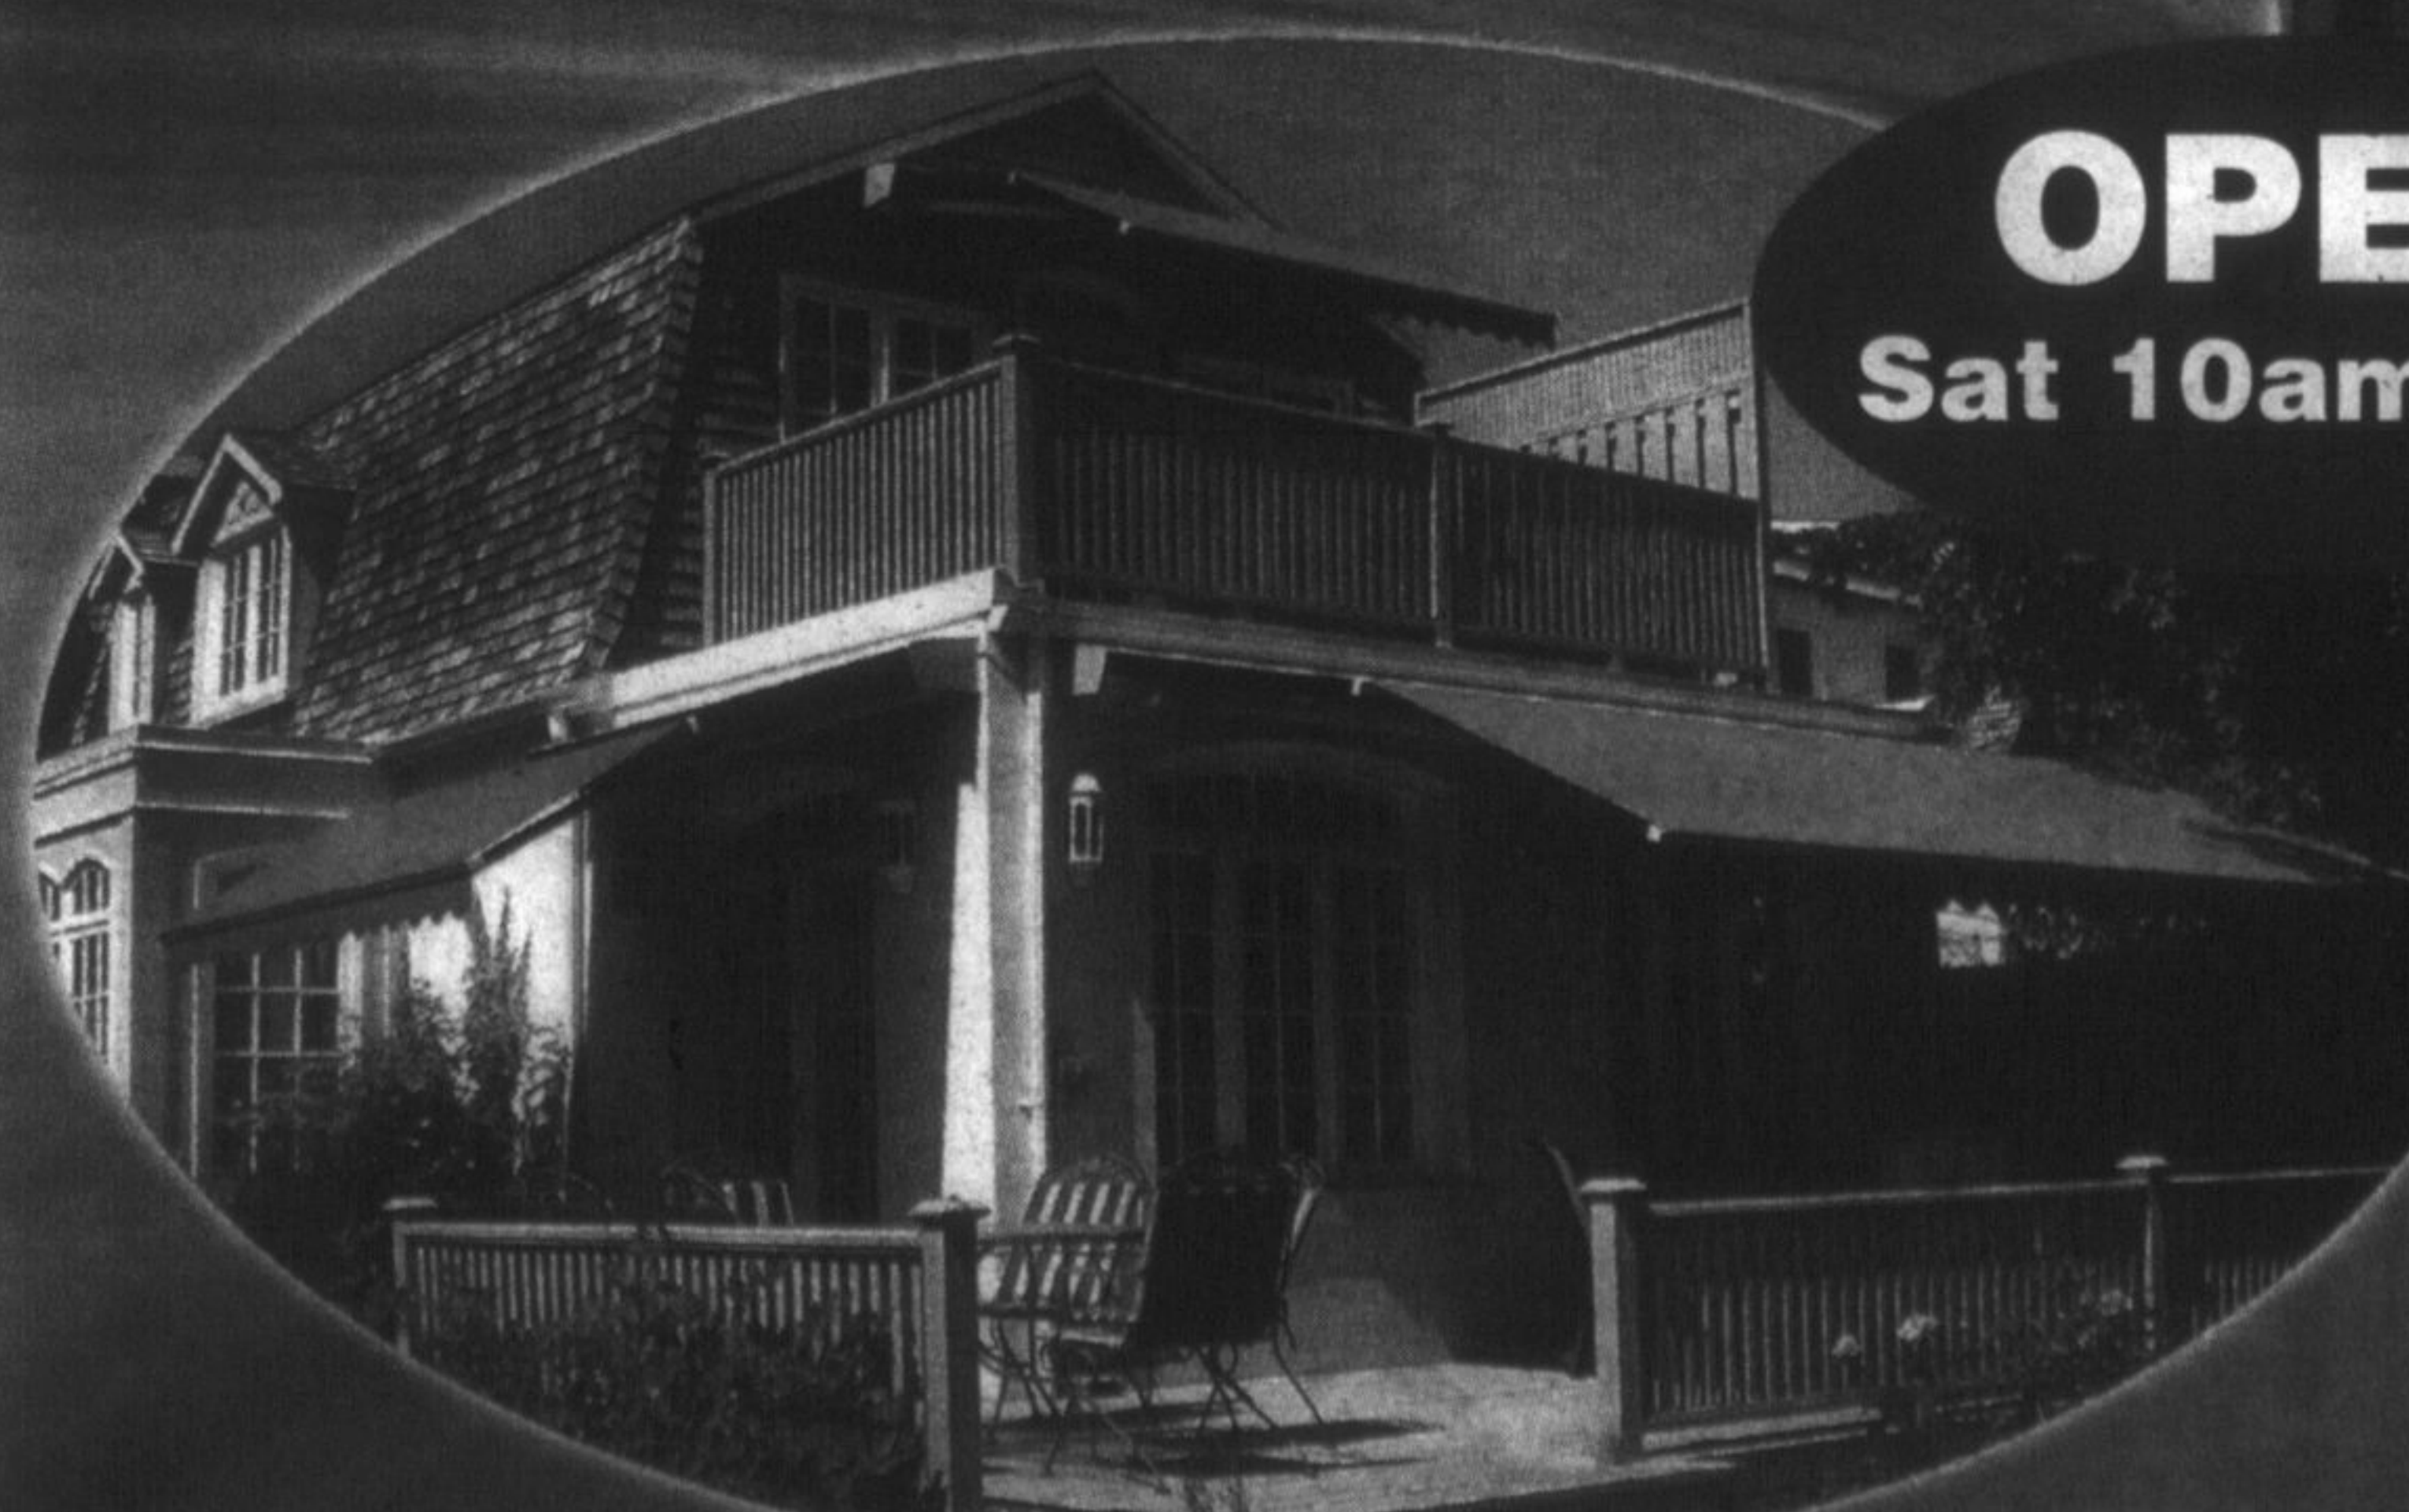

Saturday, July 18 – 8:00pm
Tickets - $35
