SEAN: AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

RICE FAMILY PHOTO

Stouffville's Sean Rice is home from hospital – nine weeks after a serious collision on Bloomington Road. “His recovery is progressing better than expected. He will not be able to walk without crutches until his femur heals, which may take a year or two, if at all,” his parents, David and Wendy Rice, said in a note to the community.

Awards on hold

BY SANDRA BOLAN
sbolan@yrmg.com

For the first time in 15 years, the Whitchurch-Stouffville Chamber of Commerce has cancelled its annual business awards.

“We had a downturn in the economy and people are busy tending to their businesses and I guess they didn't think they had the time to fill out the paperwork” for the awards, said Helene Johnson, CEO and president of the chamber.

The chamber will keep all the nominations already submitted for 2009 and combine them with those received for the 2010 awards.

No new deadline for nomination submissions has been made.

“That will be determined this fall by the board, as to when they feel is the best time,” Mrs. Johnson said.

Last year, the chamber's annual golf tournament was cancelled due to lack of sponsors and the business awards were postponed from the spring to the fall.

Businesses that have been a member of the chamber or operational in town for at least two years are eligible for nomination.

“You can't just open a business and say I'm the best,” Ms Johnson said.

Categories for the annual awards are: business of the year, business entrepreneur of the year, young (under 40) entrepreneur of the year and corporate citizen of the year.
