Hockey player faces sex charges

Last year's captain of the Stouffville Spirit and two other hockey players are facing sex charges in northern New York State.

State police charged Patrick D. McEachen, 18, of Stouffville, and two other teenagers with sexual misconduct and endangering the welfare of a child this week.

Also charged are Jordan A. Ciccarello, 18, of New Hartford, Conn., and Demetri J. Sakaris, 19, of Candiac, Que.

They appeared in a Potsdam, N.Y., court

Wednesday and were released. A new court date was not set.

Police say three teenagers engaged in sexual activity with a 16-year-old girl at Clarkson University's summer hockey camp in Potsdam in July.

Mr. McEachen and Mr. Ciccarello are first-year hockey recruits at Clarkson. Mr. Sakaris has committed to play at the university beginning in 2011.

The McEachen family would not comment.

West Nile virus is in York Region

Standing water = More mosquitoes

West Nile virus can be passed to humans through the bite of an infected mosquito. Protect yourself and your family.

1. Clean up areas of standing water around the house where mosquitoes like to breed
2. Cover up when you go outside, especially if you go out between dusk and dawn when mosquitoes are most active
3. Use insect repellent when outdoors

For information about West Nile virus contact: York Region Health Connection 1-800-361-5653 www.york.ca/westnile
