

Stouffville runners lead race for cure

The inaugural York Region Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation CIBC Run for the Cure raised more than $300,000 and had over 1,500 participants.

Stouffville's Team Victorious, spearheaded by Vicky Yakabuski, received the friends and family team challenge award for raising $13,944.

Another Stouffville team, Walky Talky, headed by St. Brigid Catholic School teacher Linda Scanga, earned the school team challenge award for raising $2,898.

The York Region run was just one of 56 Run for the Cure events that took place on Oct. 4 across Canada.

Nationally, $26.5 million was raised and 170,000 people participated this year.

The Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation was founded in 1986 to focus on funding breast cancer research, education and awareness initiatives.

Since 2000, the CBCF has directed almost $60 million to the cause in Ontario.

October is Breast Cancer Awareness month.

Stouffville's Team Victorious, spearheaded by breast cancer survivor Vicky Yakabuski, received the friends and family team challenge award for raising $13,944 at the inaugural York Region Run for the Cure.
