Spirit hopes to snap skid this weekend

The Stouffville Spirit was happy to see the Cobourg Cougars' bus head out of town Thursday night.

The last-place Cougars defeated the Spirit 3-2 to sweep a home-and-home series. There were 201 fans at the Stouffville Arena.

It was the third straight Central Canadian Hockey League loss for the Spirit, which played in Lindsay last night.

Cobourg won 8-4 at home Monday over the Spirit.

The Spirit (7-7) hosts the Orangeville Crushers tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the arena.

The Spirit led 2-1 midway through Thursday's game on a pair of Matt Neal goals.

But they couldn't capitalize on some glorious chances in the third period and couldn't get goaltender Kori Coelho out for the extra attacker in the final minute.

The Spirit power play went 0-for-11 and sits dead last in the 21-team league ...

The Spirit power play went 0-for-11 and sits dead last in the 21-team league at a 5.22 (6-for-115) clip. Newmarket's power play is best at 26.67 per cent.
