The holiday season is here and more families in need than ever.

The York Region Media Group since 2001, has helped families in our community desperate need of a Christmas.

Last year the Markham Economist & Sun and Stouffville Sun-Tribune, along with generous donations from the community, helped 24 families have a Christmas. That is 24 families with children who may have not had anything under the tree on Christmas morning.

The communities of Markham and Stouffville need to come together to provide for one another. If you think you can help, please call Mike Banville or Melanie Lambier at 905-294-2200. There are so many ways you can help give a family a Christmas.
