

A.J. sings out in NFL game auditions

A.J. de Boer wanted to sing O Canada before the Buffalo Bills' NFL game in Toronto next week.

The 14-year-old from Whitchurch-Stouffville competed with three other finalists Tuesday on Citytv's Breakfast Television.

But, when the online voting was complete, the honour went to Laura Cavacece of Vaughan.

A.J., an arts student at Unionville High School, was a scholarship recipient from the York Region Media Group's Celebration of Arts last year.

Last month, he won the major prize at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Student Music Scholarship Concert hosted by St. James Presbyterian Church.

The Bills meet the New York Jets Dec. 3 at Rogers Centre. Game time is 8:20 p.m.

Free PA day art classes

Looking for something to do with the kids during the Dec. 4 PA day?

Youngsters and their families can come to the Latcham Gallery to create a self-portrait at 10 a.m. or 1 p.m. The two-hour classes are free.

The gallery is at 6240 Main St. in downtown Stouffville.
