

SANTA PARADE: Hotdogs, cocoa served up Saturday

Bring your letters for North Pole

Santa Claus is coming to town this Saturday and he's bringing along some distinctively Canadian help in the form of Canada Post employees who will be collecting Christmas wish lists for the jolly old fella.

"Although Santa loves to receive letters and drawings, putting cookies and treats in your envelope is not a good idea as they will get crushed and damaged by the time they reach Santa," according to a head elf at Canada Post. "Santa much prefers to eat treats on Christmas Eve."

Letters that contain a return address will receive a reply from Santa. No stamps are required.

If you somehow miss giving your letter to Santa's helpers, it can be dropped into the Santa box in the lobby of the Main Street post office or at the Shoppers Drug Mart post office.

Remember to address the letter to: Santa Claus, North Pole, H0H 0H0.

This year's Kinsmen Santa Claus parade starts at 2 p.m. at Tenth Line and Aintree Drive, heads south and then west along Main Street to Southwire Canada.

FORTY-THREE FLOATS ENTERED

There will be 43 floats and four bands along with many other participants in this year's parade.

Mayor Wayne Emmerson and members of council will be doing play-by-play announcing of the parade from the clock tower on Main Street after serving up hotdogs and hot chocolate. Food will be available at 1:30 p.m. The Lions Club of Stouffville is assisting.

"We hope people will come downtown to see the parade and do some shopping while they are there," Mr. Emmerson said.
