Stouffville Spirit forward Matt Neal tries to put the puck past a crease full of Seguin Bruins during Jr. A hockey action at the Stouffville Arena on Sunday. The Spirit won 5-2 to move into a tie for third place. For more information, turn to page 15.

'I couldn't help but cry' in Haiti

Stouffville Rd. mission director 'overwhelmed' by quake damage

BY SANDRA BOLAN

Four- and five-storey buildings are now piles of rubble.

Bodies of the dead are tossed into garbage trucks and hauled away to be deposited in mass graves.

Rich. Poor. Young. Old. Politician or orphan.

On Jan. 12, a 7.0 magnitude earthquake spared no Haitian.

"It's like a giant took a sledgehammer and just randomly went berserk," said Andy Atkins, international director of Whitchurch-Stouffville-based Emmanuel International.

Mr. Atkins, along with Freedom House Haitian Christian Orphanages founder Dave Lock and his nephew, Andy Lock, a Toronto EMS worker, left for Haiti on Jan. 17 to bring food, tents, water purification tablets and medical supplies to the orphanages as well as other Haitians.

They returned on Sunday. "I wouldn't have come out, but I had to," an emotionally spent Mr. Atkins said during an interview at the Stouffville Road mission

If you have yet to master the eight roundabouts spread across the municipality, you better study up because Stouffville is getting another one on a major thoroughfare.

The new roundabout will be installed on the Tenth Line south of Main Street, at Hoover Park Drive and Mantle Avenue, this summer or fall, as approved by town council Tuesday.

The installation is part of the Tenth Line's improvement, which stretches from Forsyth Farm Drive, across from the Stouffville Country Market, to just north of Hoover Park Drive.

"I think it's great. I've pushed the region to do quite a few more," said Mayor Wayne Emmerson.

The roundabout was one of three
