

Good times for runners

Several members of the Stouffville-based York Region Runners Club recorded impressive results at York University last weekend during the Royal Canadian Legion provincial championships.

Chardae Henry was not intimidated by the presence of competitors almost two years older than her as she finished second in the girls' 15 and under 1,500 metres.

She also finished sixth in the 800 m with a personal best clocking of 2:30.1.

In the girls' 15 and under triple jump, Emma Li was second with a jump of 9.98 m. In the high jump, Li was third in 1.50 m.

Michael Bourgeois ran in the 17 and under 800 m in 2:12.3. The Stouffville District Secondary School student finished 12th out of 17 competitors from across the province.

Nathan Kyeame was second in the 15 and under 200 m with a time of 24.85 and fourth in the 60 m.
