BROWN, Mary Bernice, R.N., beloved daughter of George Aloysius and Grace Julia Chaumette, died at Union Villa Home in Unionville, Ontario on Tuesday, February 2nd, 2010, in her 85th year. Bernice was ever a proud and distinguished graduate of St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing (Montreal). She especially loved her initial nursing years spent in loving and caring for Newborns and Premies in the Nursery at the Margaret Hague Hospital in Jersey City, N.J. Bernice then returned to Montreal in the mid-60's to take up a position at the then-newly-opened Lakeshore General Hospital in Pointe Claire. Bernice retired from the Lakeshore General in 1989 after serving for many years as Night Supervisor of hospital operations. In the best tradition of Florence Nightingale, Bernice believed that to be a Nurse was to be at the service of her fellow men and women, and always practiced her profession with dedication, skill and great compassion, both for those in her care, and for staff under her supervision. Bernice is survived by her sister Margaret (Mrs. Ken Pitcher, Mississauga), her brothers George (California) and Robert (Dollard des Ormeaux), by her sisters-in-law, Marie (Charlie) and Lilly (Peter), and by many nieces and nephews. She was pre-deceased by her brothers Hartland (Joyce) and Arthur (Inez), and by her sister, Evelyn (Mrs. Burleigh DeTar). In lieu of flowers, her family requests that donations be made to the Union Villa Home Society Foundation, 4300 Highway 7, Markham, ON L3R 1L8 in gratitude for the love and the tender care bestowed on her by the wonderful staff of Union Villa. Gail and Bruce will be forever grateful for the love and devotion bestowed on her by the Villa Staff during the many years she spent in their devoted care. The Villa Staff will forever be a part of our extended family and in our prayers. God Bless you all! Our gratitude also to Fr Joseph Singh (Pastor), Frank Dencshazi, and the Visiting Ministry Teams at St. Justin Martyr Parish, and to Rev Maureen Hosannah, the Villa Pastoral and Palliative Care Coordinator, for the Spiritual comfort and support provided to Bernice over the years, and especially to our family during the past week. Mass of Christian Burial will take place at St. Justin Martyr Church, 3898 Highway #7 East, Unionville, on Friday, February 5th, at 11:00 o'clock. Burial will follow at Holy Cross Cemetery, Toronto. Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to Chapel Ridge Funeral Home (905)305-8508. On line condolences can be made to www.chapelridgefh.com.
