

HOCKEY: Shades of '72 in OMHAs Another Paul Henderson nets game-winning goal

Team Canada 1972 had a Paul Henderson score some big game-winning goals.

Stouffville's Paul Henderson scored with around six minutes remaining to lift the Stouffville minor bantam Clippers to a 2-1 win over East Gwillimbury in the first game of their second-round first-to-six-points Ontario Minor Hockey Association playoff series at the Stouffville Arena Wednesday.

Henderson scored his game-winning marker when a shot from Josh Burkholder struck his shin pad and went into the net.

After East Gwillimbury scored the game's first goal in the opening period, the Clippers came back to tie the game near the midway point of the second period on a goal by Chris Cadaret.

Jake Murray played a solid game in goal to help preserve the win for the Clippers.

After yesterday's scheduled second game, the third game of the series is set to take place Sunday at the Stouffville Arena at 4:10 p.m.

Minor atoms can move on this afternoon

The Stouffville minor atom Clippers gained the upper hand in their second round Ontario Minor Hockey Association best-of-five or first-to-six-point series against East Gwillimbury after winning the third game 2-1 in Sharon Thursday.

Adam Bain scored the game winning goal while Tyler Davis scored the Clippers' first goal.

Quest Rodin earned two assists and Rhys Garlough one.

Dalton Lehman played a solid game in goal to help preserve the win.

Leading the series two games to one, the Clippers can wrap it up in the fourth game today in Stouffville at 3:10 p.m.
