OMHA series decided tonight

For the Stouffville minor bantam Clippers and East Gwillimbury, it all boils down to one game.

The Clippers and East Gwillimbury forced a deciding game in their second round, first-to-six-point Ontario Minor Hockey Association A-level playoff series after the clubs battled to a 2-2 tie in Stouffville Tuesday.

The sixth game will be played today in Sharon at 7 p.m.

Chris Jarrett and Matt Avoledo each scored for the Clippers.

The Clippers had a golden opportunity to win the game in the 10-minute overtime session when Josh Burkholder took a shot that struck the goalpost.

HENDERSON THE HERO

The Clippers forced a game to be played Tuesday after overcoming a two-games-to-one deficit by winning Monday's fourth game 4-3 in Sharon.

In that tilt, Paul Henderson scored twice, including the game-winning goal, while Jarrett and Avoledo added singles.

The winner of the series will play Innisfil.

Many of the Stouffville players were on the Clipper peewee squad that won the OMHA A title and finished second at the all-Ontario A championships in 2009.
