Country Friends are returning to Stouffville this Sunday.

Lead by fiddle and mandolin virtuoso Laura Heighway, the group will perform traditional and new country music as well as do some old-time fiddlin'.

The group first performed in town as part of the Stouffville United Music concert series two years ago.

"They quite enjoyed the venue and the crowd, so we asked them for a return engagement," said Pat Wild, Stouffville United Music committee member and music director.
