

Midgets Clippers in command

The Stouffville midget Clippers needed one win to advance to the Ontario Minor Hockey Association A finals.

The Clippers gained the upper hand in their best-of-five or first-to-six-point semifinal series against Quinte after skating off with victories in the second and third games last weekend to take a two games to one lead.

Game 4 was played last night.

The winner plays Amherstburg for the OMHA title. The Windsor-area team swept

Owen Sound in the other semifinal series last weekend.

Playing host for the second game Saturday, the Clippers received a third-period goal from Daniel Perry off a shot from the point along with a stellar netminding effort from Ben Singh to emerge with a 3-2 win that tied the series at one game apiece last Saturday.

Lloyd Davis and Ryan Brown scored.

The next day in Trenton, the Clippers skated off with a 3-1 win.

Davis scored twice for the Clippers while Josh Machesny added the other goal.
