

Missing woman safe in Newmarket hotel

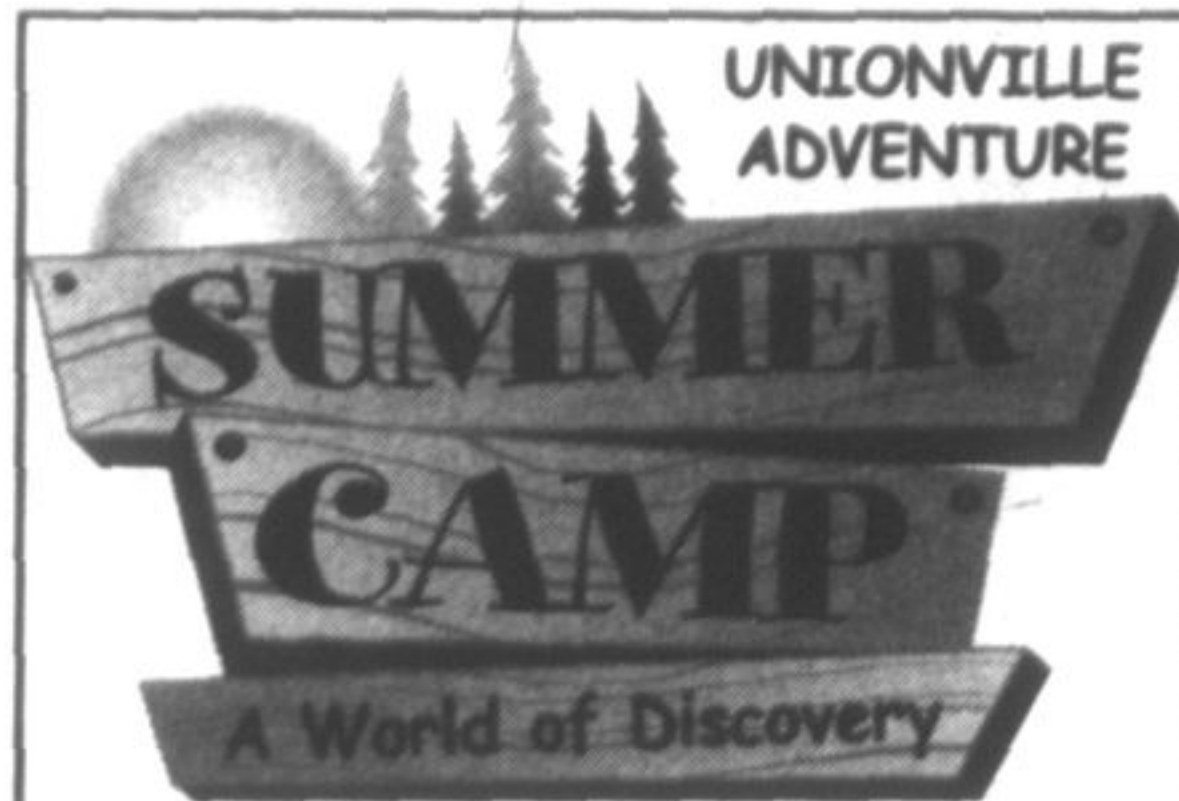

A Stouffville woman reported missing Tuesday has been found safe and sound.

Kathryn Wilkins, 54, was found in a Newmarket hotel at 4:10 a.m. on Thursday.

"She was in good health," said York Regional Police Const. Gary Phillips.

She has been reunited with her family and friends.

York Regional Police issued a media alert Tuesday after she failed to show up for work in Toronto and pick up her dog at an Uxbridge day-care centre.

Situated in the heart of Historic Unionville, Unionville Adventure Camp provides children with a unique learning experience, preparing them for the Global Village with the most widely spoken languages in the world.
