Atoms girls ice Leaside title

The Stouffville-Markham atom C Stars captured the Leaside March break tournament with a 4-1 victory over the Whitby Wildcats in last Sunday's championship final in East York.

Anchored by strong netminding from Ann Zasada and Tatyana Trovato, the Stars advanced to the final with round-robin victories over Leaside 3-1 and Orangeville 5-2. The lone setback incurred by the Stars was a 3-2 loss to the Wildcats.

Rebecca Hall propelled the Stars' offence with five goals and two assists in the tournament, while Georgia Bender had two goals and four assists and Caitlin Giannis three goals.

Single goals went to Kaitlyn Fung, Maggie O'Boyle, Sophia Peters and Theodora Ananiadis.

Other team members included: Brianna Arnold, Jamie Tjeng, Ella Bonfield, Rachel Wilson, Kristen Hanna, Laura Currie, Nikki Holmes and Courtney Mark.

Major comeback for minor atom Clippers

The Stouffville minor atom Clippers overcame a two-games-to-none deficit in their best-of-five or first-to-six-point York Simcoe semifinal series against Bradford.

The Clippers won three straight games, culminating in a 4-1 win in Sunday's fifth game at Stouffville to advance to the final.

Connor Hicks propelled the Clippers' offence with a pair of goals and one assist while Tyler Davis and Adam Bain each added a goal and one helper. Nathan Wilson earned two assists while Quest Rodin, Sam Atanackovich and Rhys Garlough each had one.

Dalton Lehman handled goaltending duties.

The Clippers forced a fifth game after emerging with a 5-3 road win in Bradford Saturday.

Rodin delivered a pair of goals and added one assist for the Clippers. Anthony Messina, Atanackovich and Hicks added singles. Bain was credited with two assists while McKaylor Major, William Keith, Davis, Sam Burkholder and Wilson each had one.

Brent Menzies played in goal for the Clippers.

The Clippers will face East Gwillimbury in a best-of-five or first-to-six-point series for the league championship. The starting date was yet to be decided as of press deadline.

Bantams win York Simcoe semifinal

The Stouffville bantam Clippers captured their best-of-five York Simcoe semifinal series over Barrie in four games, taking the final game 2-0 in Stouffville Tuesday.

Missing two of their nine forwards, the Clippers took a 1-0 lead with just over three minutes remaining in regulation time on a shorthanded goal by Sean Hoey.

With Barrie pulling their goalkeeper late in the game in favour of an extra attacker, the Clippers added an insurance goal when J.R. Newlands scored into an empty net. Alex McKean recorded the shutout.

The Clippers drew first blood in the series with a 3-1 road win last Friday. Zach McMahon, Hoey and Blake Marconi scored.

After losing the second game 3-2 in Stouffville last Saturday, the Clippers rebounded to win the third game 4-0 in Barrie the following day and take the upper hand in the series.

Jon Colley scored twice for the Clippers, while Hoey and Marconi added singles.

Matt Espey handled netminding duties to earn the shutout.

The Clippers will face Newmarket in a best-of-five or first-to-six-point final series with dates yet to be determined as of Wednesday.
