

Operatic dream come true

Audrey Swire looks on as opera singer Jade-Dawn L'Ecuyer-Prytula performs for Mrs. Swire's family and friends at Bloomington Cove last Saturday. Audrey's dream has always been to attend an opera, so the Second Wind Dreams program brought the opera to her at the long-term care home on the Ninth Line. The program is a partnership between Niagara College, Bloomington Cove and Second Wind Dreams.

Stouffville's Welcome Wagon reps tops

Two Stouffville Welcome Wagon representatives are award winners.

Dianne Darling has been named the recipient of the 2009 award of excellence in service in Ontario.

Karen Bowman won the provincial award for baby programs.

They will be honoured at a conference in Toronto this June.

Founded in 1930, Welcome Wagon is a Canadian-owned, free greeting service for families experiencing "a lifestyle change," including moving to a new neighbourhood, planning a wedding or expecting a baby. The service is available in more than 500 communities across Canada.

Learning Disabilities?

If you or your child suffers from LEARNING DISABILITIES then attending this free symposium may be the most important thing you do this year. You will discover the true cause of these conditions and natural solutions and options you can use right away to overcome them.

Many children and adults with ADD and Dyslexia have seen significant improvement without medication. Dr. Turner is an international speaker and lecturer who has been featured on the Dini Petty Show, National News, Canada AM, CFTO News, Marilyn Denis CITYLINE and Riley Live. He will present a free symposium on Thurs. April 8th at 7:30 pm at the Stouffville Health Centre, 6219 Main Street.
