

Whitchurch-Stouffville artists Tracy Arthurs, Janet Lowe Beauchamp and Terry Spencer prepare for the Jennifer Ashleigh Children's Charity auction and dinner on May 7.

Pinball rolls in for children's charity

Summer arrives May 7 for the Jennifer Ashleigh Children's Charity.

The charity will hold its annual auction and dinner that night at the Hilton Suites, Toronto/Markham.

The event, themed the Lazy Days of Summer, will raise funds to assist seriously ill children and their families. All things summer, including a canoe race, seasonal auction items, trips and a gourmet dinner, will be part of the evening.

Guest speaker will be CFL legend Michael "Pinball" Clemons.

Based in Uxbridge, the charity has its roots in Stouffville.

The charity was founded in 1990 by Stouffville Country Market owner Norman Clements in honour of his granddaughter, Stouffville resident Jennifer Ashleigh Clements, who died of spinal muscular atrophy. Her sister, Danica, died of the same illness two years later.

Since 1990, the charity has raised more than $10 million and assisted 7,000 families.

Tickets are $175 from 905-852-1799 ext. 26 or galarsvp@jenash.org

Auction items are welcome. Call 905-852-1799 ext. 25.
