

Atom BB Stars in provincials

The Stouffville Markham atom BB Stars settled for the silver medal at the Lower Lakes Female Hockey League's championship weekend after suffering a 1-0 loss to St. Catharines in the final played in Oshawa.

The Stars got off to a rough start in the round-robin placement after coming out on the short end of a 2-1 verdict against the Georgina Golden Hawks.

Ellis Sasaki scored. Miranda Sharp and Juliana Hutton earned assists.

But the Stars rebounded in their second game to edge the previously undefeated St. Catharines Chaos 2-1. Sasaki and Dani Fox, with the game-winning marker, scored for the Stars.

Frances Tenney played a stellar game in goal.

The victory enabled the Stars to play Georgina again for the right to advance to the final.

The Stars gained a measure of revenge by edging Georgina 2-1. Fox and Willow Leahy each scored once for the Stars.

The Stars will represent York Region in the provincial playoffs this weekend.

Tyke B team sweeps to championship

The Stouffville tyke B Clippers captured the York Simcoe Hockey League championship, beating the Unionville Jets in three straight games that culminated with a 2-0 win at the Stouffville Arena.

Nolan Ross and Christian Greco each scored once for the Clippers.

Tyler Alden, Liam Vogan and Greco each had one helper.

Lysander Kobold and Alex Lisitsas split goaltending duties to record the shutout.

Cruising through their 12-game regular season and playoffs with an undefeated record, the Clippers won the first game 5-1.

Ross and Alden each scored twice while Marcus Roest added the other marker.

Ashton Hughes and Riley Perret-Rogers each collected one assist.

The Clippers then took command of the series with a convincing 6-1 win in the second game.

Ross, Roest and Greco each lit the red light twice.

Reilly Barker was credited with two assists while Vogan, Perret-Rogers, Matthew Gordon and Greco had singles.

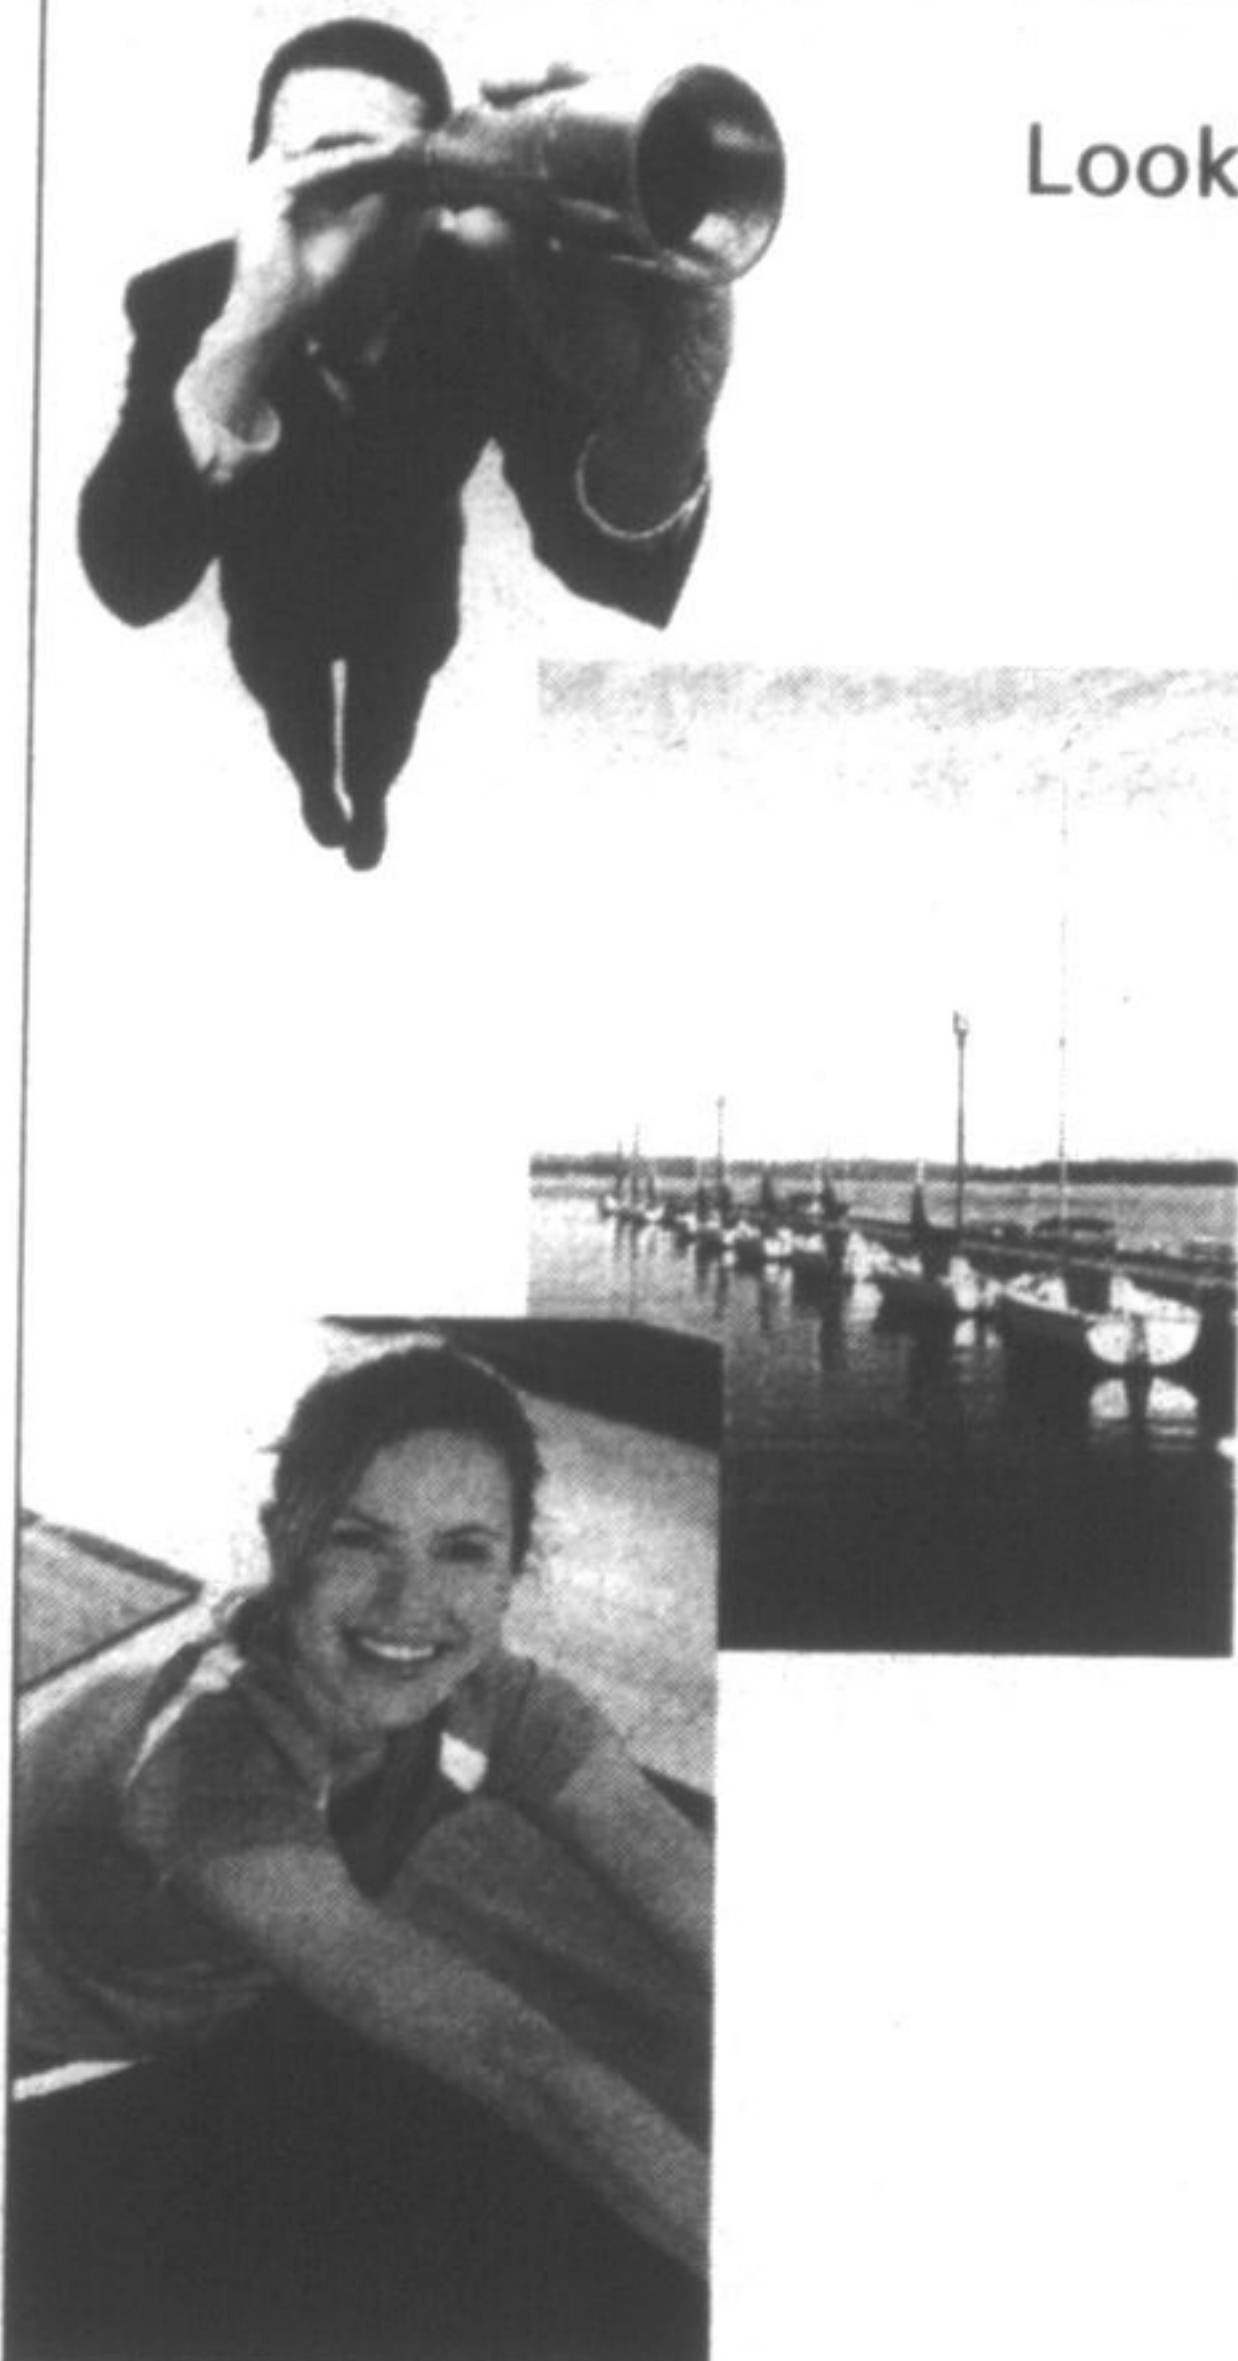

Coached by Justin Rogers and assisted by Mark Alden, Eric Ross and Steve Roest, other team members included: Katia Pelowich, Jake Rose, Trevor Leighton, Ryan Johnston, and A.J. Drummond. Don Barker was the trainer and Rod Johnston, manager.
