

SCHOOL TEST

STAFF PHOTO/SUSIE KOCKERSCHIEDT

Harry Bowes Public School student Jaelin Bassett looks through 3D glasses with the help of Stouffville Lions' volunteer Carol O'Boyle Tuesday. The service club annually does vision screening of senior kindergarten students in Stouffville. If a problem is suspected, the club recommends parents take their child to see an eye doctor. The Stouffville club has been running the program for nine years.

YRMG wins character award

York Region Media Group, the parent company of The Sun-Tribune, received the Business of Character Award in the for-profit category during the fourth annual York Region Character Community Awards ceremony in Richmond Hill Tuesday.

YRMG was recognized for contributions to the United Way,

Relay for Life, Dragon Boat race, for helping more than 130 needy families through the 2009 Santa Fund, supporting all three York Region hospitals and involvement in numerous other boards, associations and charities.
