Gritty rugby boys try for first place

Rob Edmondson knows his Stouffville District Secondary School Spartans junior boys' rugby team doesn't have big-time athletes.

With just 17 players, they're not big on numbers either. But, they've proven to be a gritty bunch of overachievers in the York Region Athletic Association tier one season, winning their last three games.

Their most recent triumph was a 35-5 road win over the Markville Mavericks Tuesday. With the win, the Spartans assured themselves of a berth in the upcoming YRAA semifinals.

"They've played structured, organized rugby," Edmondson said. "And they enjoy it. We don't have a lot of God-given talent. They know they have to work hard."

They host Bill Crothers (Unionville) today with first place on the line.

In Tuesday's win, Melvin Nolan scored two tries while singles went to Gabe Peralta, Chris Matsoukas and Theo Grammenis. Mike Tapiero booted one convert and penalty kick.

Seniors have eyes on top spot, too

The Spartan seniors routed host Markville 41-3 in a YRAA tier one contest.

Jesse Lofthouse and Paul Geiger recorded two tries while Pat Laffan and Connor McDonald each had one. Oliver Boettcher booted four converts.

The Spartans will host Brother Andre (Markham) today at 2 p.m. A win will enable the Spartans to clinch first.
