SPORTS: Volleyball, basketball events on schedule

Alumni spiking SDSS tourney

Serves, digs and spikes will be the name of the game on the Stouffville District Secondary School hardwood floor when the 11th annual Millennium Cup holds court Saturday.

Cup founder Jim Fletcher, former Stouffville Secondary and Summitview Public coach, said a total of eight men's teams will take to the court beginning at 9 a.m.

Many of the players are Stouffville alumni or have some Whitchurch-Stouffville ties.

Entries include the two-time defending tournament champions from Thornlea Secondary. Coaching the team is Stouffville native Steve Hutchison.

The championship final is set for 2 p.m.

Fletcher will also be conducting an alumni basketball tournament at Stouffville Secondary June 19. Called Fletchy's Alumni Basketball Tournament, the action will tip off at 8 a.m. and wind down at 6 p.m.

Electing to run the event because of the success of the volleyball event, Fletcher said he's received plenty of positive feedback from individuals and teams intending to enter the men's basketball event.

Anyone interested in entering the tournament can contact Fletcher at 905 649-7518.

Willowgrove on course for fundraiser

Willowgrove, a Whitchurch-Stouffville-based non-profit charitable organization celebrating over 40 years of providing quality outdoor experiences for youths, will stage a fundraising tournament at Angus Glen Golf Club June 5.

The event will be a shotgun format starting at 1:30 p.m. followed by dinner and auctions.

Total cost per person is $185.

Touching the lives of close to 20,000 youngsters from various faiths and backgrounds through their camps, primary school, outdoor education centre and recreation programs, the McCowan Road facility relies on outside support to enable it to enhance and enrich the programs it currently provides.

At the same time, they wish to keep their programs affordable for families from all economic backgrounds and provide an opportunity for them to touch more lives.

Pimm, Streit fourth at champs' event

Stouffville's Gail Pimm and Marlene Streit, a former Stouffville resident, each shot an eight-over par 80 to finish in a five-way tie for fourth place at the recent Golf Association of Ontario's Women's Champion of Champions event at the Oshawa Golf and Country Club.

A member of Mill Run Golf and Country Club, Pimm and Streit, a York Downs Golf and Country Club member, finished seven shots behind Lisa Maunu of St. Thomas, who won the event with a one-over par 73.

The Women's Champion of Champions event is held annually pitting the women's club champions from all across Ontario in competition to crown an eventual provincial champion.
