

Good start, bad finish for midget Spartans

The Stouffville District Secondary School Spartans midget boys' rugby team got off to a good start at the Barbarian Cup by winning their opening match at Fletcher's Field in Markham Sunday.

Unfortunately, that would be the last hurrah for the Spartans as they proceeded to lose their next two matches and were denied entry to the semifinals.

Buoyed by single tries from Zach Bauman, Matthew Renzone and Matt Espey, the Spartans won their first match over Uxbridge 15-10.

Facing St. John's College (Brantford) in their second outing, the Spartans ran into a formidable opponent and were blanked 28-0.

The Spartans then concluded pool play against Streetsville Secondary School and fell 21-7.

J.R. Newlands had the lone Spartans' try while Renzone booted the convert.

Despite the loss, Spartans head coach Tom Mintchev was pleased with the effort put in by his club, which earlier this year won the Red Hot Tournament title.

"The kids played well, it wasn't like we played poorly in our two losses. We just had an increase in competition," he said. "St. John's has a great program and Streetsville was a team we thought we would run into in the Red Hot final (an event the Spartans won). And our game against Uxbridge was tough too."

"I think our kids have a great future ahead of them."

Bolender jumps to 10th at OFSAA

Olivia Bolender was the lone Spartan to compete at last week's Ontario Federation of School Athletic Associations track and field championships in London.

Competing in the junior girls' triple jump, the Grade 10 student finished 16th.

Bombed in Oshawa, Mennos home tonight

The Stouffville Mennos generated little offence when they took to the ball diamond for their Oshawa City and District Fastball League road game against the Oshawa Bombers Tuesday.

That proved to be costly for the Mennos as they fell 7-0 to the Bombers in a five-inning mercy shortened outing.

The loss by the Mennos, now 1-4 on the season, was their second against the Bombers over the last six days.

The Bombers scored a pair of runs in their first at bat, courtesy of a two-run homer by winning pitcher Ryan Swift.

The Bombers added a run in the second and four unearned runs in the fourth to round out the scoring.

Byron Baranieski and Greg Dalgarno were the lone Mennos' batters to collect a hit off Swift.

Mennos pitcher Jay Nesbitt surrendered seven hits, three walks and struck out seven to take the loss.

The Mennos resume league play tonight when they host Lake Simcoe at Memorial Park. At Bethesda Park, Stouffville's other entry in the league, Jones Pools, hosts the Bombers. Both are 8:30 p.m. starts.
