Jones Pools wins battle of Stouffville

The Stouffville Mennos put in a short night's work when they faced Stouffville Jones Pools in their Oshawa City and District Fastball League contest at Bethesda Park Thursday.

It was an outing the Mennos would just as soon put behind them as they were mercied 7-0 in a five-inning contest.

About the only offensive threat the Mennos generated took place in their first trip to the plate when centrefielder Shawn Boadway and second baseman Rich Burkholder each singled to start the game.

But catcher Dale Boadway became the first of Jones Pools' pitcher Jeff Wilson's eight strikeout victims on the night. Shortstop Jeff Boadway and pitcher Byron Baranieski each flied out to end any potential uprising.

Wilson helped his own cause at the plate by belting a home run in Jones Pools' first inning that was part of a three-run outburst.

Jones Pools padded their lead to 6-0 in the second and one in the third.

Baranieski took the loss after surrendering six runs on five hits in 1 2/3 innings.

The loss dropped the Mennos'

SPORTS BRIEFS

record to 7-11.

The Mennos are scheduled to resume league play against second-place Aurora at Bethesda Park Thursday at 8:30 p.m.
