BUSINESS: Espresso bar owners listening to customers

Coffee's on at Red Bulb

Cheeyuen Lim and Gloria Chan met while working at Starbucks.

They've brought that coffee know-how to Stouffville and opened Red Bulb Espresso Bar at Main and Edward streets.

Mr. Lim, who has lived in Stouffville for three years, worked in strategy and IT management for big corporations, "before finally succumbing to my real passion of making and selling coffee".

The focus is on quality coffee and tea, complemented by a variety of baked pastries, simple lunch items and decadent desserts.

"Being an espresso bar, we love to make our espresso-based beverages like lattes and mochas that are made with the best beans and chocolate available," Mr. Lim said.

The bar is open week days from 5:30 a.m. until 8 p.m. (9 on Fridays) to serve GO train riders and evening customers alike. Hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekends.

"I've grown to love the community," he said. "Together with other small businesses in Stouffville, the hope is for more Stouffvillites to embrace the downtown and we are hoping to do our part through our passion in coffee."

So far, so good, since opening last month. "We are amazed at the level of support and encouragement shown by the Stouffville community," he said.

Before opening, they used a blog and Facebook page to gather information.

"We turned that feedback into positive reviews by working on what the community desires - consistent evening hours, great product quality, etc.," he said.

The name? "We chose Red because of its powerful image and more so as it represents the passion we have for the cafe," he said. "We also intend to continuously improve our offerings through innovative ideas. Tying these two together, Red Bulb fits our message amazingly well."

MUUN Design Studio, which is managed by Mr. Lim's wife, Sching Ng, designed the store and its marketing.
