Lynch, May best boarders

Travis Lynch won the 15-and-over division at the Luke Penny memorial skateboard event in Stouffville Memorial Park Saturday.

Steve Livingston was second and Brent Clements third.

David May was first in the 14-and-under division.

Angelo Georgatsellos was second and Matthew Pehar third.

Storm mites third at softball provincials

The Stouffville Storm mites won the bronze medals at the Ontario Amateur Softball Association championships after winning three games while losing two in Palmerston last weekend.

Behind the strong arm of pitcher Matt Eizenga, who tossed a no hitter and striking out 16 batters, the Storm won their opening game over Port Perry 9-0.

Lucas Fasullo, Chandler Gloyns and Tyler Ribi led the Storm. Each collected a triple and single.

Anthony Messina chipped in with a double and single while Eizenga had a double, Brent Menzies three singles and Owen McKnight one single.

The Storm then lost 4-3 to Walkerton.

McKnight led the Storm offence with two singles while Menzies had a single and drew one walk. Gloyns and Caleb Wannamaker had two walks and Emilio Francella and Messina one each.

The Storm rebounded to mercy Belleville 16-2.

Eizenga and Ribi each belted a triple and a single while Fasullo had a triple, Menzies two singles, McKnight one hit and one walk, Jaden Spylo, Gloyns, Messina, Stewart-Kuppek, and Wannamaker each drew two walks, and Ianuzziello and Francella had one walk.

With a berth in the medal round on the line, the Storm faced Ennismore and required extra innings to pull out a dramatic 6-5 win.

Menzies propelled the offense with a triple while Fasullo had a double, Eizenga, Gloyns, Ianuzziello, Ribi and Stewart-Kuppek each had singles, McKnight one single and one walk, Francella two walks, and Messina, Spylo and Wannamaker each drew a walk.

The Storm saw their tournament hopes come to an end after falling 18-6 to Walkerton in the gold-medal qualifier.

TEAM COMPLIMENTS

Ribi led the Storm's offensive charge with a triple and a single while Menzies and Messina each had a triple, Gloyns one single and two walks, Fasullo two walks, and Jordan Ianuzziello and Jordan Stewart-Kuppek each drew a walk.

Storm head coach Terry Eizenga could not say enough about all his players and coaches, and the way the team overcame adversity defensively to rally and support each other.

Assistant coaches Dale Wannamaker, Bill McKnight and Josh Eizenga received several compliments on their team and the excellence of the character of the players from tournament officials and rival coaches and players.
