

Lightning on horizon for Jones Pools, Mennos open playoffs in Aurora

For the Stouffville Mennos and Stouffville Jones Pools it will be do or die when the Oshawa City and District Fastball League playoffs commence next week.

With the eight teams participating in a one game quarter-final series, the seventh-place Mennos will take to the road to face second-place Aurora Wednesday.

The Mennos finished the regular season with a 10-11 won-loss mark. Aurora recorded a 13-7 record.

Stouffville Jones Pools, who finished the season in fourth place at 11-8 and won 10 of their last 12 games, will host fifth-place Lake Simcoe Lightning at Bethesda Park on Thursday.

KOERT AT CANADIANS

However, Jones Pools is expected to be without the services of pitcher Paul Koert, who will be playing at the Canadian championships.

Other quarter-final matchups will see first-place Scarborough hosting a composite eighth-place team of Oshawa midgets and juniors.

The third-place Oshawa Bombers will host the sixth-place Oshawa Rebels.

Each of the quarter-final winners will advance to play a best-of-three semifinal series for the A championship.

The four losers will play a best-of-three semifinal series for the league's B championship.

Medals won at world judo masters

Two members of the Stouffville-based Sheffield Judo Club returned with medals from the recent World Master Athlete Judo Championships in Montreal.

With participants from all over the world in attendance and competing in a variety of kata competitions, Doug Wilson claimed a bronze in the men's 50-54 group, under-90 kilogram class in the shiai competition.

Also entered in the newaza (grappling) competition, Wilson fielded a silver medal.

Garry Vosburg won a bronze in the men's 45-49 age group, under-100 kg. class in the newaza division.

With participants from all over the world in attendance and competing in a variety of kata competitions, Doug Wilson claimed a bronze.

The divisions in the event were broken down into five-year age increments and then according to the International Judo Federation (IJF) weight classes.
