Stouffville players win rugby league title

Six Whitchurch-Stouffville residents played instrumental roles in helping the Markham Irish Canadian Rugby Club under-18 men's team win their second consecutive Toronto Rugby Union title and keep their hopes alive for a fourth straight provincial title with a 38-0 win over Barrie at Fletcher's Field in Markham on Sunday.

Jesse Lofthouse scored a pair of tries and added two converts for Markham.

Peter Wideman, Matheson Muir, Patrick Laffan, Jeremy Brownridge and Connor McDonald were also members of the Markham team.

Markham will play an opponent yet to be determined as of press deadline in the final at Fletcher's Field Sept. 12.

Fastpitch players second at E. Canadians

Stouffville resident Patrick Fiorino and Hunter Davidson, an incoming student at Stouffville District Secondary School, were members of the Port Perry Jacks peewee boys' fastpitch team that settled for the silver medal at the 2010 Eastern Canadian championships in Drummondville, Que., last weekend.

The pair helped the Jacks advance to last Saturday's final only to fall short against Chepstow (Ontario) 9-2 in the final.

The Jacks were a second Ontario entry in the tournament while Chepstow was the first Ontario entry.

Tough go for Morad at GP3 races in Belgium

Daniel Morad experienced a rough go on the SPA-Francorchamps road circuit for a pair of GP3 series races in Belgium last weekend.

The 21-year-old Stouffville resident who races with the Status Grand Prix team did not finish the first of two 12-lap races Saturday. On Sunday, Morad was 16th.

In the overall series standings, Morad is in 11th place with 15 points. The next GP3 series race is in Monza, Italy, next weekend.
