Reilly Barker (centre) is the recipient of this year's Courtney Trempe Award in the Whitchurch-Stouffville Softball Association. The award is presented to a child in the Five-Pitch Advance level for demonstrating sportsmanship. Reilly was selected by coach Mike Banville. Presenting the award were Courtney's mother, Donna Trempe, and brother Carson. Courtney, who played in the association, died after being mauled by a dog in Stouffville in 1998. She was eight years old.
