

Run for Cure returns to region

You can Run for the Cure again in York Region Sunday.

The inaugural York Region run held last October attracted more than 1,600 participants, 100 volunteers and raised close to $400,000 for innovative breast cancer research, education and awareness programs. Several Whitchurch-Stouffville residents took part.

This year's run will be held at Richmond Green in Richmond Hill with check-in and final on-site registration at 8 a.m.

Opening and closing ceremonies will be held at Richmond Green High School following the run and walk.
