WARD, Lois Anna (nee Williamson)- A long time resident of Streetsville, West Toronto and Unionville, passed away peacefully in the arms of loved ones on Monday October 4th, 2010, in her 84th year.

Devoted wife to the late Bill (William) Ward, compassionate and loving mother to Gary (Sheila), Don (Nelinda), Rick and Cheryl (Darcy). She is survived by her older brother Jack (Joan) and younger sister Myrna (Joe). Nanny will always be loved and cherished by her grandchildren Shawn (Amy), Charlene (Sean), Kristin, Stacy (Jeff), Michelle, Ryan and Carson, her 8 great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. She was the glue that bonded us all together and never wanted to miss a thing. Along with the wonderful summers spent up at the cottage in Muskoka with her family & friends, Lois spent many years in the community volunteering her time and was associated with The Unionville Home Society working and caring for the elderly in the 70's & 80's. She also volunteered many hours as a driver for the Canadian Cancer Society. In her line of work, this artist and planner was able to travel the world with her husband and friends, creating life long memories, fabulous paintings and great stories. Lois will always be remembered as the life of the party, by her many friends & relatives. Family and friends are welcome to join us for a drop-in reception, the celebration of Lois' life, at the Markham Seniors Activity Centre, 22 Water St. (905) 294-5111 on Saturday October 16th, 2010 from 2-5pm, tribute and speeches at 3:30pm. Children are welcome. In lieu of flowers, donations to the Alzheimer's Society or The Unionville Home Society would be appreciated. Condolences and online memorial donations may be left at www.chapelridge.com
