Carrick, Werek face off with Russians

Stouffville minor hockey graduates Sam Carrick and Ethan Werek, a former member of the Stouffville Spirit, will represent the Ontario Hockey League when it plays Team Russia in the 2010 Subway Super Series next month.

A member of the Brampton Battalion and a fifth-round pick of the Toronto Maple Leafs in the 2010 National Hockey League entry draft, Carrick, 18, will suit up for Team OHL at its Nov. 11 game in London.

A second-round draft pick of the New York Rangers in the 2009 NHL entry draft and a third-year forward with the Kingston Frontenacs, Werek, 19, will play in the Nov. 11 game and Nov. 15 match in Sudbury.

A member of the Stouffville Spirit during the 2007-08 campaign, Werek has six goals and five assists in seven regular season games with the Frontenacs so far this season.

In three games with the Battalion this season, Carrick had two goals and one assist.

Indoor golf at Rolling Hills this winter

Golfers who aren't planning to go south of the border during the winter months but wish to tune up or maintain their game before the start of next season can do so at Rolling Hills Golf Club.

The Whitchurch-Stouffville course has an indoor practice facility in which registrants have access to 20 hitting stations, chipping and putting greens.

As well, golfers can get assistance from the Rolling Hills' professional teaching staff, customizable golf lessons and a new state-of-the-art video analysis with the Pro Play Golf Performance System.
