

Stouffville history buffs hope to re-start society

Interested in reviving the Whitchurch-Stouffville Historical Society?

The suggestion in editor Jim Mason's column last month has drawn some attention.

Local history buffs Jim Priebe and Fred Robbins have called a meeting for Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library.

"We'll discuss the practical aspects of getting things going, as well as people's hopes and expectations for a historical society," they said in a media release.

New centre in Markham helps cut through government red tape

A new Service Canada Centre has opened in Markham offering services in Cantonese, Mandarin and Tamil, as well as English.

Residents may apply for government programs and services at the centre, such as social insurance numbers, employment insurance, old age security and the Canada Pension Plan.

The new centre — one of 600 points of service across Canada dedicated to providing accessible, convenient assistance to Canadians — is at 5051 Hwy. 7 East, unit 14.

An official opening was held Tuesday, attended by Oak Ridges-Markham MP Paul Calandra.

Centres are also located in Newmarket, Ajax and Richmond Hill.

For more information regarding Service Canada and its area centres, call 1-800-O-CANADA (1-800-622-6232), or visit www.servicecanada.gc.ca

Welcome Wagon, Lions club give back to kids camp

Dianne Darling does good work and with it does good works.

The Stouffville Welcome Wagon representative won the company's national award for the fourth time in June.

With it came $500 plus a $1,500 donation to Mrs. Darling's charity of choice.

She selected Camp Kirk, an overnight summer camp for children with learning disabilities, attention deficit disorders, autistic spectrum disorders and incontinence/enuresis.

Mrs. Darling presented the cheque to the Stouffville Lions Club Monday during a meeting at Latham Hall.

The local service club supports the camp, near Kirkfield.

Mrs. Darling has worked for Welcome Wagon since 1977.

A CANDLELIGHT CHRISTMAS

Saturday, December 11 - Cancelled

Despite our best efforts to continue to run our annual Candlelight Tour in December, we have found it necessary to cancel the event for 2010.

This evening is usually a special and intimate evening for our guests, and we feel we cannot guarantee the same experience this year while construction continues on the Museum site.

The event will be back in 2011 (on December 10th), and if you would like to call and leave your contact information, we will be glad to call you as soon as tickets are ready next year.

Thank you so much for your patience during our construction process as we work to create a beautiful new community space for you!
