Hughes scores conference honours at Cornell

Hayley Hughes had a productive week for the Cornell University Big Red women's hockey team.

After amassing two goals and four assists in the school's last two outings, the Stouffville resident was chosen as the ECAC Hockey Player of the Week for the period ending Nov. 8.

The senior forward scored twice and had an assist in Cornell's 3-0 win over visiting Harvard University a week ago Friday.

The Stouffville District Secondary School graduate then collected three assists, a career high, in a 6-1 win over visiting Dartmouth College the following day.

The six points Hughes amassed on the week equal one-quarter of her three-year career total entering the season.

Her brother, Bobby Hughes, has seven points in nine games with the Wichita Thunder of the Central Hockey League this season.

Pee wee Stars shine

The Stouffville Markham pee-wee A Stars are off to a great start this season, climbing to first place in their nine-team Lower Lakes Female Hockey League division after blanking the host Belleville Bearcats 2-0 last Saturday.

Megan Mizuyabu and Sammy Burton scored for the Stars, who improved to 4-3-1.

Frances Tenney played in goal and recorded the shutout.

The Stars play in Belleville today before facing Clarington at the Stouffville Arena Sunday.

Perfect weekend for atom AEs

The Stouffville atom AEs went three-for-three in Ontario Minor Hockey Association action last weekend.

The Clippers began their winning ways with a 2-1 win over Orillia in Stouffville Friday. James Carlin and Justin Day scored.

Playing in Richmond Hill the following day, the Clippers received a shutout from Jordan Stewart-Kuppek and two goals from Ryan Alden in a 4-0 win over the host Stars.

In Beeton Sunday, Stewart-Kuppek got another shutout, 3-0.

Justin Miller, Day and Matheus Roest scored.

The Clippers' record is 8-2-3.

Stouffville rugby players tackle titles

Several Stouffville residents played integral roles in helping the Markham Irish Canadians Rugby Club men's firsts and seconds teams end their season on a positive note at Fletcher's Field in Markham last Saturday.

Chris Boake scored one try and Matt Raguseo booted a pair of penalty kicks to lift the Markham firsts to a 16-11 win over Barrie in the McCormick Cup consolation final.

Also members of the Markham firsts were Jesse Loft-house, Gavin Howe and Joe Beare.

Tony Felix scored a pair of tries to propel the Markham seconds to the Gee Gage Games title with a 15-8 win over Toronto Beaches.

Other Stouffville players on the seconds were Adam Howe and Chris Lombardo.
