

Bruce's Mill plans on agenda

Revised plans for Bruce's Mill Conservation Area will be presented to the public Monday night in Stouffville.

The meeting takes place at 7 p.m. at the Lebovic Leisure Centre.

Presenters will update those in attendance on research that has been done over the past year and present new concepts and themes.

During last year's meeting, the draft master plan included a proposal for an RV or tent campground and replacing the driving range with a low-impact use such as a trail.

The 2009 draft master plan also included a proposal by the Toronto Region Conservation Authority, which operates the Stouffville Road park, for a multi-purpose building, which would replace the current chalet/pancake house.

The public meeting will include a formal presentation followed by a Q&A session.

Library honours top family

Whitchurch-Stouffville's Patel family has been named family of the year by the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library.

The Patel family - Brijesh, Minal, Gracy, Pavan and Pracy - utilizes the library's programs and services as well as checks out a wide variety of books to help instill a love of books and reading.

The award, which honours a family in the community for its interest and use of the library, was created in 2005.

COMMUNITY BRIEFS

Spirit players serving up assists for Children's Aid kids

Stouffville Spirit Jr. A hockey players are helping children who might not otherwise get a chance to play sports.

The players will act as guest servers at Boston Pizza in Stouffville Nov. 24, raising funds and creating awareness for the York Region Children's Aid Society.

Money raised will go to the society's special projects, which help kids who normally wouldn't have the opportunity to participate in activities such as hockey.

The players will greet restaurant patrons, sign autographs and serve meals from 6 to 8 p.m.

Boston Pizza will donate 10 per cent of sales to the fund.

"Our players have been blessed with the opportunity to play hockey their whole lives," said Spirit spokesperson Terri Tambos. "And giving back to this very worthy cause warms their hearts, especially at this time of year. The Spirit organization is proud to be a part of this special night and I believe we can make a difference."
