

Oshawa OHL coach talking hockey

The Markham Minor Hockey Association has invited head coaches from the Whitchurch-Stouffville Minor Hockey Association to attend a coaching seminar at Angus Glen Golf Club in Unionville Nov. 24.

The guest speaker will be Chris DePiero, head coach and general manager of the Oshawa Generals of the Ontario Hockey League.

DePiero will speak on coaching today's athlete and strategies in the new game.

Mike Gouglas, event spokesperson and Markham Waxers minor organization director of hockey development, noted there's limited seating for the event. Head coaches can bring one or two assistant coaches.

The Ontario Minor Hockey Association has endorsed two previous coaching seminars allowing those who attend the upcoming event to be eligible to receive CEP points towards the renewal of their coaching certification.

"This will be another great opportunity for all minor hockey coaches to come out and learn from a high level coach and professional involved within the game of hockey," Gouglas said.

Refreshments will be provided and a cash bar is available.

Peewee Stars tie one on with Flames

Breanne Douse stopped every shot directed her way to help the Stouffville Markham peewee Stars battle the Clarington Flames to a 0-0 tie in Lower Lakes Female Hockey League action at the Stouffville Arena Monday.

The tie concluded a gruelling weekend for the Stars, who also took to the ice Friday and Saturday in games that resulted in losses.

Playing host to the Whitby Wolves at the Angus Glen Community Centre in Unionville Friday, the Stars received goals from Megan Mizuyabu, Juliana Hutton and Bianca Cugno in a 5-3 loss.

Travelling to Trenton the following day for a 9 a.m. contest, a fatigued Stars team suffered a 3-0 loss to the Belleville Bearcats.

Despite the two losses, the Stars remain tied for first in their division.

The Stars will play in the Barrie Sharks tournament this weekend.
