Minor atoms in Guelph tourney final

The Stouffville minor atom Clippers played in the championship game at the Guelph Powerplay minor hockey tournament but fell short against the Nepean Raiders 7-4 Sunday.

Spencer Krabi led the team scoring two goals and one assist, while Mark Assal and Stephen Tulk scored the other goals. Chris Holman recorded two assists while Michael Hary and Nicholas Olidis had one assist each.

The Clippers began the tournament with a 6-1 loss to Innisfil. Olidis accounted for the lone goal while Krabi had an assist.

Facing Hespeler in their second game, the Clippers gave their opponents a run for the money before falling 4-3. Holman recorded a goal and an assist and Liam MacInnis scored a single tally with an assist to Tulk.

But the Clippers showed their resolve as they rebounded from those setbacks to blank the Pickering Panthers 6-0.

Holman paced the attack with two goals and an assist, Hary one goal and one assist, Assal, Matthew Kovac and MacInnis with single tallies. Assists went to Krabi and Tulk with two each, Aaron Kirkness, Jack Boston, Tristan Meiliunas, Jacob Turney and Jack Valleau with one apiece.

With a semifinal berth on the line, the Clippers defeated Kitchener 3-2. Krabi delivered a pair of goals while Olidis accounted for the other marker. Helping to preserve the win was a stellar effort between the pipes by Jordan Ogden.

The Clippers then met Innisfil in a rematch and buoyed by a strong netminding performance from Ethan Volpe, skated off with a 5-4 win and berth in the final. Kovac paced the Clippers' offence with two goals and an assist while Billy Starke chipped in with a goal and one assist, Holman and Hary each had single tallies. Krabi has two assists.

The Clippers' next home game is tomorrow against Aurora at the Stouffville Arena at 7 p.m.
