In celebration of serving the community for 10 years, the Stouffville Policing Centre swore in 18 new volunteers.

The Stouffville Community Policing Centre was created to communicate the needs of residents to the York Region Police and to assist with non-emergencies.

NON-EMERGENCIES

Some of the activities volunteers have participated in include the bike rodeos at the Stouffville and Ballantrae fire halls, the Terry Fox Run and Remembrance Day ceremonies.

At the annual general meeting held earlier this week, awards were given out to a number of volunteers.

George Milroy was named Volunteer of the Year 2010, Cyndi McConnell earned the Chairman's Choice 2010 Award, while Scott Lonergan and Shaen Armstrong were honoured for their Long-standing Service to the Board of Directors.

Ten-year recognition certificates were given to Const. Alwyn Vandenberg, Shaen Armstrong, Steve Pickard, Carole Langford, Bill Burnett, Wendy Cartwright and Ray Barr.

A new board of directors was also elected.

Joanne Iannuzzi was re-elected as chairperson and Laura Gallo was named co-chairperson. Carole Langford was re-elected as treasurer and Jenn Iannuzzi was named secretary.

Supt. Robertson Rouse is the York Region Police representative, while Phil Bannon is the town council representative.
