

ARTS: SDSS show opens tonight at Latcham

Students take lesson from curator

Graduating Stouffville District Secondary School art class students learned more than how to sculpt, paint and take photographs for new Latcham Gallery exhibition - Images 2010: Not a Whisper.

The students also found out how to organize an exhibit from start to finish.

Throughout the art-making process, students worked with a professional artist and received guidance from their teacher, Onalee Creasor.

In working with gallery curator Maura

Broadhurst, the students learned what was involved in putting an exhibition together, including how and where to hang the works and arrange the opening-night reception.

Not a Whisper opens tonight with a reception from 7 to 9 p.m. at Latcham Gallery, 6240 Main St. Awards will also be announced during the event.

The exhibit runs until Dec. 30.

Kirstin Marsh, 18, prepares her sculpture, Rhynia, for tonight's opening of the annual Stouffville District Secondary School art exhibit at the Latcham Gallery in downtown Stouffville. The show closes Dec. 30.
