Tourney named for Al Hachey

Al Hachey would be proud. The Stouffville resident died last October in the middle of preparations for the annual Knights of Columbus free throw championships.

The event grew to involve 1,800 students in elementary schools across Whitchurch-Stouffville, under Mr. Hachey's watch.

When the local finals tip off tomorrow at St. Brigid School, they'll carry a new name: The Al Hachey Memorial Basketball Free Throw Tournament.

"Al was well known by many people of Stouffville through his participation and leadership, along with his wife, Jane, and his children, in the sports community," said Robert Tabone of the Knights of Columbus at St. Mark church. "The Knights would like the community of Stouffville to know that the work of our Brother Al Hachey continues to involve the students of Stouffville, whom he loved to see participate in an event that would involve a tremendous amount of (them) in a non-competitive venue, yet have them achieve some recognition of a skill associated with basketball."
