Who makes town's best chili?

Is it hot in here?
EastRidge Church is hosting its third annual Chili Cook-Off March 26 from 6 to 7 p.m.

Residents are invited to submit their most unique, hottest, vegetarian, or traditional chili recipes for a chance to win prizes.

Along with the selection of home-made chilis, there will be hotdogs and drinks available. Admission is $5. Children 12 and under are free.

All proceeds go to the Whitchurch-Stouffville Emergency Care Fund. Celebrity judges from the care fund will include Marty Bartley, Jim Mason, Kym Pyke and Tim Soukup.

The emergency care fund was created in 2007 to assist residents affected by emergency situations such as a fire, car accident, illness or death and need financial aid.

To enter the contest, first submit a copy of your recipe to the EastRidge office by March 22. Recipes will be collected in compliance with the York Region Community and Health Services requirements.

Competitors and their chili should be at the church by 5:30 p.m. on the evening of the event for judging.

Entry forms are available at the EastRidge office, 12485 Tenth Line. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday to Thursday and 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Friday.

For more information, call 905-640-3911, e-mail office@eastridge.ca. or fax 905-640-3925.
