

Atoms save best for last

The Stouffville major atom AE Clippers picked an opportune time to capture their first tourney title of the season at the season-ending Whitchurch-Stouffville Minor Hockey Association Year-End Tournament.

As a bonus, they did it in front of their hometown fans by edging Aurora 6-4 in the final at the Stouffville Arena.

Justin Day led the assault with a pair of goals while Ryan Alden, Chandler Gloyns, James Carlin and Justin Miller each added singles.

Mattheus Roest collected a pair of assists while Ryan VonKaufmann, Nick Smith, Blake McNeill, Noah Witherspoon and Anthony Messina added singles.

In advancing to the final, the Clippers received a stellar netminding effort from Jordan Stewart-Kuppek as he stopped every shot directed at him to win their opening game over Peterborough 4-0.

Miller netted a pair for the Clippers while McNeil and Alden added singles. Gloyns collected a pair of helpers while singles were credited to Nathan Wilson, Carlin, Witherspoon, Roest, VonKaufmann and Josh Tambos.

CAPTURE HOMETOWN TOURNAMENT

Facing Aurora in their second outing, the Clippers received single tallies from Day, Miller, Carlin and VonKaufmann in a 4-1 win. Laird Douglas earned three assists while Josh Tambos had a pair and Wilson and Roest each had one. Andrew Collins played a solid game in goal to help preserve the win.

Buoyed by a hat trick from Miller and single tallies from Carlin, Wilson, Tambos and Miller, the Clippers won their third game of the tournament over Uxbridge 6-2. Smith and Wilson each had two helpers while singles went to Carlin and Roest.

With a berth in the final on the line, the Clippers beat Peterborough 4-1. Carlin had a pair of goals while McNeil and Wilson had one. Witherspoon had two assists while Miller, Messina, Carlin and Alden each had singles.

The team was coached by Dave Witherspoon, Ken Wilson and Greg Smith. Christine McNeil and Jane Alden were managers and Chris Tambos was trainer.
