THE SUN-TRIBUNE'S STEPHANIE WEST ASKED STOUFFVILLE VOTERS FOR THEIR THOUGHTS THE DAY AFTER ELECTION DAY.

JENNY CARRIER

"Honestly, I'm indifferent, there's been no real change other than bringing to light the other party platforms."

BOB ABRAM

"I'm very pleased that we got a majority, because if we had minority, it would be a waste of money."

BUNTY TARBUSH

"I think it's good, couldn't be better. I feel sorry for the Liberals, but I think it's going to be good for all Canadians."

DAVID AMY

"I think the results are quite good because now that we have a majority government, Harper can run the country without conflict."

BARB JONES

"It's a good thing to have a majority conservative government and it should be interesting to see what an NDP opposition party can do."

DON ROE

"It's great, we need someone in control, and we can now govern properly. It'll be a good change with NDP in there."
