MUSIC: Busy month for shows

Concert plugs into Stouffville AIDS fund

James Miller and his band will be playing a mix of original and cover songs in a night full of music and support for those affected by AIDS next Saturday in Stouffville.

The proceeds of his show will go towards the Give a Day to World AIDS organization to help support the Stephen Lewis Foundation and the Dignitas International and their work in Africa.

Mr. Miller has received many impressive reviews of his performances and music.

The Give a Day to World AIDS was initiated by Dr. Jane Philpott of Stouffville. There will be an address by Dr. Philpott on the night of the event.

Nineteen on the Park will be hosting the show. Doors will be opened at 7 p.m. and the concert will begin at 7:30.

Tickets are $20 for adults, $10 for students and $40 for families. Donations will be accepted.

More information on fundraising efforts can be found at www.giveaday.ca

Tickets can be purchased by calling the box office at 905-640-2322 or bought online at www.nineteenonthepark.com
