

Students tackle battle of sexes In final production tonight

Love is in the air at Stouffville District Secondary School this week.

Students in the senior drama class are performing their last play of the year – and you're invited.

Maybe Baby, It's You is a series of sketch comedy scenes about the elusive search for love written by Charlie Shanian and Shari Simpson.

The play goes from the first kiss to the not-so-golden years of marriage.

"My class really wanted to do a comedy," drama department head Deborah Craig said.

THINGS TO DO

"They liked the topic of the battle of the sexes."

This showcase gives students the opportunity to show their family and others from the community what they've got.

"We really, really would love to see more of the community come out," Mrs. Craig said.

The play will be performed tonight. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. The play goes from 7 to 8:15 p.m. It's a family-friendly production. Admission is $5.

Lawn bowlers open club to novices, newcomers

Spring training isn't reserved for baseball players.

The Stouffville Lawn Bowling Club is rolling this month with Spring Training for Lawn Bowlers, a series of clinics offered by past president Rick Wall.

The sessions take place in the clubhouse at the bowling green in Stouffville Memorial Park Tuesdays and Thursdays this month starting at 7 p.m.

The clinics, geared to new members and novice bowlers, cover the basics of the game, rules and etiquette and the roles and responsibilities of the various players on the team.

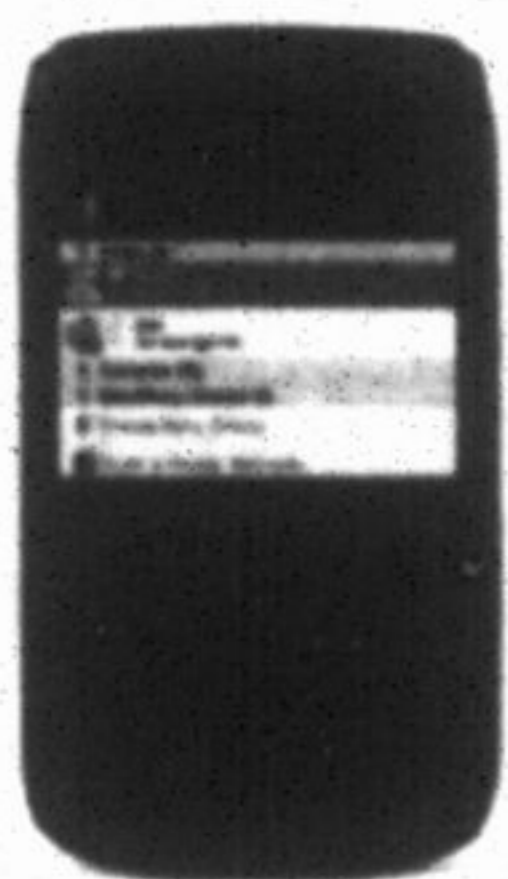

The club offers members house league play, internal and outside tournaments and lots of social bowling, which combines the sport with food and fellowship.

Club members are looking forward to bowling on an expanded, regulation-sized green next year, as well as a new clubhouse in 2015.

"Anyone can come down to the park and try the game – there's no nicer way to spend a summer evening," president Bob Stover said. "And you might just discover a sport you can enjoy for a lifetime."
