as a candidate for the Oak Ridges-Markham nomination last year. As of 5 p.m. yesterday, he became the riding's official Progressive Candidate.

"I was out there for a very long time. They approached a number of potential candidates. ... They finally said you'll be acclaimed," he said. "I'm excited and anxious to get on with the business of cam-paigining."

Mr. Wassef will be nominated at a public meeting Tuesday at St. Bishoy Coptic Orthodox Church 6500 Main St., Stouffville. Admission is free and everyone is asked to arrive between 7 and 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Wassef will launch his campaign that night following the meeting.

throughout the summer.

Come September, he said he will leave his job to campaign full-time.

If elected, he plans on maintaining his licence and "attempt to work on a part-time basis".

The Green Party of Ontario does not have a candidate for Oak Ridges-Markham, but a spokesperson for the party said it is "actively recruiting".

Inquiries by The Sun-Tribune to the Ontario NDP regarding their Oak Ridges-Markham candidate have gone unanswered.

No other candidates have announced their intentions to run in the riding.

Making Parking Easier!

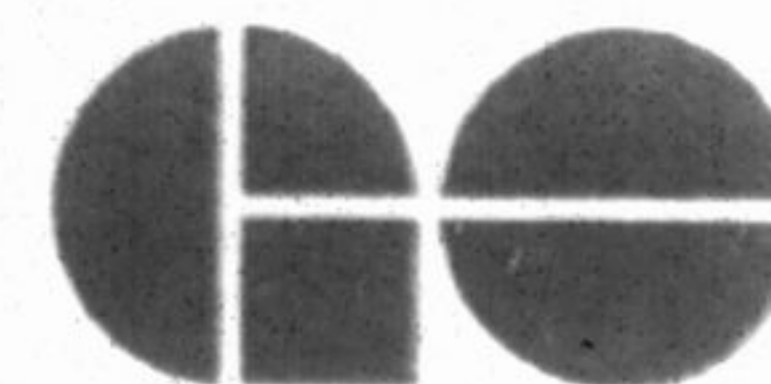

We're working hard to make getting to and travelling on GO as easy as possible so our customers can relax and enjoy their ride.

At Mount Joy GO Station a number of improvements are underway. More than 500 new parking spots are being created and will be available for customers in November 2011. A new entrance from Hwy. 48 is under construction to improve access to the station, and the Kiss "N" Ride area, lighting and landscaping are also being improved.
